A timely, judicious and sensible article from the Toledo Commercial, concerning of the Mississippi plan and the action and otterings of the Rebel Brigadiers, with alarm. And well they may.

The Republicans of the 1st Ward of Toledo held a rousing open sir meeting on Friday night last, which was addressed by Measts, McGowan, Austin and Kumler. Mr. H. S. WALBRIDGE, candidate for State Senator in this district, was present and called out and made some remarks of a plain and practical nature. He said that if our people would tend to their business us close on election day, as they did at other times, we should have a Republican government right straight along. In re-

At 2:45 yesterday afternoon the new grand stand at the fair grounds, at Adrian, Mich., suddenly gave way in the center under the weight of two thousand people burying the people in the rains. The grouns and screams of the dying and wounded and frightened are reported as indescribable. The deaths numbered ten up to last evening and a number more of the seriously injured were not expect-ed to live through to day. There is near a column of names of the seriou ly and slightly wounded, many of whom are not expected to survive their injuries. It is a terrible calamity for the people of that

The Cincinnati Enquirer pointedly says that " by and by we hope that public opin Ion will be educated up to the point where it will be as much of a crime for a State or County officer to steal as it is now for a poor creature who is starving." The Enquirer is right. This business has become an abuse of the most outragous character, but so long as political parties will nominate men guilty of such crimes, and en deavor by the power of party discipline to force them upon the people, so long will the abuse be perpetrated. The only safe the source of perpetrated. The only safe thing for the people to do is to reject such men when they come up for re-election, no matter what their party associations may be. DANIEL W. VOORHEES.

The Democratic managers of their campaign in Ohlo have seen fit to import Daniel W. Voorhees, of Indiana, to stump the State in their behalf. Last week he spoke in Sidney, and took occasion, not only to boast of his loyalty, but also of the valuable services he rendered the country during the war. He vehemently denied ever having said that every Union soldier should wear a collar labeled, "My dog-A. Lin-coln." Now it happened that there were two respectable and responsible men in the audience—W. F. Steen and Heary English—who heard him say it in a speech in Indiana. We took the pains to write to the Indianapolis Journal in regard to it, and they published our letter and its reply. The Journal says Voorlices always goes away

A FEW FACTS IN DETAIL. The following facts, as the Democratic unties given above, have been secured from reliable citizens of each county; ALLEN COUNTY.

ASBLAND COUNTY.

We are unable to give the facts in regard to the crookedness in this county, but the amount was up in the thousands, as all Democratic steals are. AUGLAIZE COUNTY.

It will be remembered that Myers, the a small portion has been recovered the expenses of the county have been very heavy. Of the missing funds, upwards of $6,000 en to the amount of $18,500. BELMONT COUNTY. Amount of defalcation of Treasurers $13, 721.45. Suit was brought and verdict obtained for the whole amount, which was set aside by a Democratic Judge; and

BROWN COUNTY. Democratic defalcation, $40,000; for which the Treasurer was sent to the Penitentiary for one year, the Democratic Judge at the same time sending up some petty smoke-house threves for three years. This is ility, and the Deputy Auditor was arrested for having stolen the money, but he has not not been convicted, nor has any of the noney been recovered

The Treasurers of Union and Batavia ownships went under to the tune of $3,000 each, but no arrests and no money recover-posed rubbery the bondsmen of Ketchum were released by a special act of the Legislature, on the plea that he had been robbed; and although the plea turned out to be false, not one cent has been collected from Ketchum. CHAWFORD COUNTY. The amount of the shortage charged to this backbone Democratic county is put at $10,000, and yet it is well understood that the stealings in that county for the past twenty years would aggregate at least $50,000. The Democratic leaders of Crawford have large experience in covering up deficiences of their officers; the county s wealthy, the population mixed, and i is comparatively easy to clude responsibility for official malfeasance of sil kinds.

DARKE COUNTY, In this stronghold of Democracy a gen eral state of crookedoess existed, when the Auditor of State ordered Gen. Joseph H Godman to make a thorough examination of the financial affairs of the county. eport of the Examiner showed that the several county officials had taken from the trensury $6,428 in the shape of illegal fees, &c., most of which proved to be a dead loss to the people of the county.

DEFIANCE COUNTY. Ten or twelve years ago the Tressurer of his county was compelled to leave the county because of crookedness and irregularity in his office, and has never returned Last fall another shortage of $7.000 was No criminal prosecutions have ever been had, and the county will probably be a permanent loser of about $125,000 ! Such is Fairfield Denceracy. HANCOCK COUNTY.

Wall, the Treasurer of Hancock county was a defaulter for about $35,000. He was tried but was permitted to "abscond," and is said to be living in Iowa. The people lose nearly the whole of this amount with the addition of heavy expenses incurred in the HENRY COUNTY. It is claimed by those who are in a position to know, that the losses in this county foot up from $50,000 to $75,000, of which some $18,000 has been recovered We have no information as to the prospect of collecting the balance, but it is supposed to be lost beyond recovery. HOLMES COUNTY. About the year 1854, Treasurer John M.

Shock defaulted to the tune of $22,000. He fied to Europe, but returned and was sentenced to the Penitentiary for one year.

The people lost the whole amount. The has suffered largely from two Anditors since that, but the theires burnt the evidence of their guilt. [TO BE CONTINUED NEXT WEEK.]
